

Hang Week's Wash in a Few Minutes on a Hill Clothes Dryer

Clean Compact

Why continue to fuss with unsightly, ungainly clothes lines and poles when you can get this neat, compact, convenient Hill Dryer. Instead of being spread all over the yard and supported by numerous poles, every inch of every line on the Hill Dryer is within easy reach—so you can hang the whole wash without moving a step, without having to drag the heavy basket up and down the yard through snow or damp grass.

Capacious Convenient

Set up a Hill Dryer in a convenient spot near the house and see how many steps, how much time, work and bother it saves. Once use it and no one could ever coax you back to the old-fashioned clothesline method. Hill Dryers are made in several sizes and styles for lawn, balcony and roof. Hold 100 to 150 feet of line—revolve so line comes to you—taken apart, folded up and put away, keeping your lawn entirely clear of obstructions.

Let us put one up in your yard ready for next wash-day. Or call and see it.

RAZING OF FIRST COLLEGE BUILDING

By tonight there will be nothing left of the first home of the College of Hawaii. The temporary building in the rear of McKinley high school, where classes and lectures have been held since the college was instituted, is being demolished. It was roofless at 7:30 this morning. The material will be used for other construction on the new college tract in Manoa.

Next term of the College of Hawaii will be held in the first building constructed of the handsome central group planned for the institution. Just lately completed, this edifice stands out as an ornament to the landscape visible from miles away in different directions.

With the removal of the temporary college building McKinley high school will have the benefit of the full area of grounds that were originally procured for it. Even then the campus will be small enough for recreation purposes of the pupils—in fact far below playground requirements as now universally recognized on the mainland.
